Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson

Isaiah 40:1-11

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins. A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken." A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand for ever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is read responsively by half verse, breaking at the asterisk. The leader reads the first line and the congregation responds with the next line.

Psalm 85 vv1-2,8-13

- 1 You have been gracious to your land, O Lord, * you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.

- 2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people * and blotted out all their sins.
- 8 I will listen to what the Lord God is saying, *
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, * that his glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
- 12 The Lord will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

The Second Lesson

2 Peter 3:8-15a

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed.

Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire? But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home.

Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish; and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able, and turn to face the Gospel.

The Gradual Hymn

AAHH 190

The Holy Gospel

Mark 1:1-8

The Celebrant says

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, "See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way; the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,'" John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

The Sermon

The Rev. Russell Bohner

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able. Said together.

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

A Reader leads the prayers

Lord Jesus, you are the light of the world: hear us as we pray in faith, see us as we wait with hope, kindle in our hearts your love.

We pray for the Church; for all bishops and clergy, and for all who proclaim in word and deed the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Lord Jesus, bring unity among all who believe in you.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray for the nations; for all in authority, and for an end to war, violence, injustice, and oppression. Lord Jesus, give your peace to the world.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray for the earth, which you have given us, and for the wisdom and will to care for it. Lord Jesus, give us reverence for your creation.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray for the lonely and destitute, for children in need of protection, for the unloved and forgotten; for the sick in body, mind, and spirit; for the hungry and homeless; and for all who need our prayers, remembering those in our Parish Prayers and those we name now (Silence). Lord Jesus, give your healing grace to all who are sick and suffering.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray for all who have died, remembering those in our Parish Prayers and those we name now (Silence). Lord Jesus, grant them eternal rest.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We give thanks for all your blessings, especially for those we name now (Silence). For those seeking the grace of faith and a welcoming community, and for the people of God gathered in this place, that through our lives and ministries, we may reflect the Light of Christ. Lord Jesus, inspire our hearts to hospitality and service.

People Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Said together

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People: Amen.

The Peace

The Celebrant says

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The ministers and people greet each other in the name of the Lord.

The Offertory

The Celebrant says the Offertory Sentence.

Offertory Anthem

Advent Fanfare by Barbara Furman, Vruuchten, arr L. Larson

Please be seated.

Please stand, as you are able. During the Hymn, the ushers process the gifts to the altar, and the children who want to assist with Holy Communion follow behind the ushers. Children will be visible to online viewers since this worship service is broadcast live on the Church Website and Facebook Page and the video remains available to view online.

The Holy Communion

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Please stand or kneel, as you prefer. The Celebrant continues

It is truly right and just, our duty and salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, almighty and eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may rejoice to behold his appearing. Therefore, joining our voices with Angels, Saints, and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your glory as we sing,

The Sanctus

Setting: From Missa de Sancta Maria Magdalena, Healey Willan (1880-1968) Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-730475. The Hymnal 1982

The Celebrant continues

You are Holy, O Lord, and all you have created gives you praise, for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, by the power and working of the Holy Spirit, you give life to all things and make them holy, and you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting, a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

As we celebrate the memorial of your Son’s saving Passion, his wondrous Resurrection, and glorious Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this living and holy sacrifice.

The Celebrant elevates the bread, saying

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and, giving you thanks, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends saying, “Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

The Celebrant elevates the cup, saying

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine and, giving you thanks, gave it to his friends saying, “Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the cup of my blood, which is poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, as your faithful people,

Said together

We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you return in glory.

O Lord, we humbly implore you, by your Holy Spirit graciously to make holy these gifts of bread and wine we have brought to you for consecration that they may become the body and blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

Look, we pray, upon the offering of your Church and grant that we, who are nourished by the body and blood of your Son and filled with your Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ. Make of us an eternal offering to you so that we may dwell with you, and you with us. May this sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray, O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world. Be pleased to conform in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, and in your compassion, O merciful God, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated bread and wine and says

All this we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, O almighty God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.

People AMEN.

The Celebrant says

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us we are bold to say,

Said together

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated bread and breaks it saying

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated gifts, saying

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

The Prayer of Spiritual Communion

During the distribution of Holy Communion, the people worshiping online pray

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection: I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand or kneel, as you prefer. The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Said together

Almighty God, we thank you for nourishing us with the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, through which you reconcile us to yourself and unite us one to another. Grant us your peace, O Lord, as we wait with lighted lamps to meet your beloved Son when he comes in glory. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant says

May He whose second coming in power and great glory we await, make you steadfast in faith, joyful in hope, and constant in love. And the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

People Amen.

Please be seated.
